

A Briefing With the Admiral

Welcome to the first edition of my new monthly newsletter!

On the first Thursday of every month, I will send out “A Briefing With the Admiral,” where I will update you on my activities throughout the month and keep you up to date on any exciting news I have to share. As we all know, social media algorithms can be incredibly unreliable, so consider this your one-stop shop for all of The Nerdy Flutist content and news you may have missed. So, make sure you add kelly@thenerdyflutist.com to your contact list so that my emails go straight to your inbox and don't get filtered out by your email provider. They can be sneaky that way...

Exciting News!

If you were not aware, I've been working for almost an entire year on my debut album! Back in April 2023, I ran a Kickstarter campaign to fund my very first album, The Inner Light: Flute Music From the Final Frontier.

It is an album of 11 covers of my favorite themes from the Star Trek franchise, all played on flutes, piano, and pennywhistle. I am excited to report that the album will be released sometime in February! I'm waiting to receive the final tracks from my engineer, and then it will be distributed to my Kickstarter backers. After that, I will be posting the album to purchase directly from my website, or you can listen to it on your favorite platform (Spotify, Apple Music, etc.). A supplemental message will go out to you all when I have a date nailed down.

note: This is a unique circumstance in which I will send more than one email in a month.*

A Shiny New Website!

Over the last couple weeks, I have been working hard on sprucing up my website so that I have a place for you to come to see what I've been up to and to browse any music I have available. I'm very happy with how it came out, and you can view it HERE.

Become an Officer for even more updates...

In addition to this monthly briefing, I will be posting any upcoming projects and behind-the-scenes info to my Patreon community. If you are interested in becoming more involved and supporting my music and content directly, you can join my Patreon to become an “officer” and receive special privileges! Officers can make requests for songs to be played on livestream, new videos, and have a special section of my Discord to chat with me directly. Occasionally I even play games with my officers on Twitch! And I know what you're thinking, “if I'm an officer, do I receive a rank?” Absolutely! Check out my Patreon HERE to learn more.

The Nerdy Network

Interested in joining the community but need a free option? Join my Discord server to become a crewmember! The Nerdy Network is a place where you can see announcements from me and chat with fellow nerds from around the world!
